

Role Profile | Communication Lead

Location:	Aberdeen/Remote	Status:	Full time
Salary:	£44,000 – £65,000	Reporting:	Communication Director
Bonus:	Attractive	Benefits:	See below

The opportunity

Communication Leads will have a proven track record in strategic communication with extensive client management and team leadership experience, strong commercial understanding and first-rate project management skills. You'll contribute to the strategic direction and growth of Aspect.

You'll devise and deliver high-quality, outcome-focused campaigns and programmes aligned to our clients' business strategies. Building and maintaining excellent client relationships, you'll become a trusted advisor to a range of clients in all aspects of communication, external affairs, marketing and issues management.

You will develop and grow existing client accounts, while identifying and targeting new clients across a range of sectors, making a strong contribution to Aspect's profitable growth. To recognise and financially reward your contribution to the company's growth, you'll be eligible for the Aspect Bonus Scheme.

You'll recruit, lead and develop Aspect teams to deliver exceptional results for clients, working in partnership with colleagues on integrated campaigns and projects. You'll also develop and manage a team of talented associates and partners working within the broader Aspect associate network.

Communication Leads will research, develop and produce high quality proposals and pitch presentations to secure exciting projects from new and existing clients. You'll be in your element when successfully managing and delivering multiple projects, using your influencing and leadership skills to motivate and inspire those around you.
